

Australian Council of Deans of Science

AGENDA | WIL in Science NATIONAL FORUM 2018

Friday 7 December, ParkRoyal Hotel, Melbourne Airport

WHAT NEXT FOR WIL IN SCIENCE?

This forum is designed to assist Faculties to work towards a systematic embedding of WIL. Sessions address key challenges in constructing WIL programs from the perspective of students, industry and faculty.

10.00am – 10.15am	Welcome: Professor Brian Yates, President, Australian Council of Deans of Science Professor Liz Johnson, Director, ACDS Teaching and Learning Centre
10.15am – 11.00am	Keynote: WIL for 21C graduates Professor Jan Orrell, Professor of Assessment, College of Education, Psychology and Social Work, Flinders University
11.00am – 12.00pm	Roundtable: What next for WIL in Science? <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Outcomes from the Successful WIL in Science project: resources, community, students Roundtable discussion <ul style="list-style-type: none"> How can WIL in Science connect out to WIL experts, other disciplines and new ideas How can we best support WIL in Science leaders? What are the next priorities for WIL in Science Faculties?
12.00pm – 1.00pm	Lunch & networking
1.00pm – 2.00pm	Panel: Collaborative expert teams for WIL; the role of WIL professionals Facilitator: Professor Shelley Kinash, Director (Advancement of Learning and Teaching) University of Southern Queensland Panel members: Verity Kingsmill, Manager, Careers and Employability Service, Flinders University, Trish McCluskey, Director, Connected Learning, Victoria University Mark Tolson, Manager, Work Integrated Learning, Faculty of Science, Engineering and Built Environment, Deakin University Panel discussion <ul style="list-style-type: none"> What expertise is needed to support WIL and curriculum development? How do successful multi-expert teams work? What structures help?
2.00pm – 3.15pm	Keynote: Deep evaluation of WIL from the Macquarie PACE program Associate Professor Kate Lloyd, Professional and Community Engagement (PACE) program Cherie Nay, PACE Evaluation Manager
3.15pm – 3.30pm	Wrap up: Professor Liz Johnson, Director ACDS Teaching and Learning Centre
3.30pm	Forum close